Bio

Dean Cobos has served at the College of Biblical Studies-Houston in various capacities for over 20 years. She has a Master of Theological Studies from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and a Master of Library Science from Sam Houston State University. She obtained her undergraduate degree in Christian Leadership and in Biblical Studies at the College of Biblical Studies-Houston. Dean Cobos is currently pursuing a Doctor of Ministry degree at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

With over 20 years of experience in Biblical Higher Education, Dean Cobos brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to the role of Dean of Students, and she is deeply committed to supporting students in their academic and spiritual journeys.

Dean Cobos is also an assistant professor of library research and serves as both the deputy Title IX coordinator and ADA coordinator, advocating for student's rights and ensuring a safe and inclusive campus environment. She is also responsible for coordinating student life events and activities and has been tasked with overseeing the student council.

As a Delta Epsilon Chi honoree with the Association for Biblical Higher Education, and a contributing author to The Word, Worship and the Work Week devotional book, she is dedicated to upholding academic excellence and spiritual integrity among students.
