Bio

Professor Cobos serves as an assistant professor of library research. With over 20 years of service in various roles in Biblical Higher Education, Professor Cobos brings a wealth of experience to her recent role as Registrar. She holds a Master of Theological Studies from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and a Master of Library Science from Sam Houston State University. Professor Cobos earned her undergraduate degree in Christian Leadership and Biblical Studies at the College of Biblical Studies-Houston and is currently pursuing a Doctor of Ministry degree at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

In her current role as Registrar, Professor Cobos oversees academic records, registration, and enrollment processes, ensuring that students receive the support they need to succeed academically. Her background in student services and her commitment to student success in her former role as Dean of Students at CBS, guide her work in promoting both academic achievement and spiritual growth.

Professor Cobos also serves as the Designated School Official (DSO) for international students under the Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP). In this capacity, she ensures compliance with immigration regulations and offers guidance on visa requirements, supporting international students through their academic and regulatory journeys.

A Delta Epsilon Chi honoree with the Association for Biblical Higher Education, and a contributing author to The Word, Worship and the Work Week devotional book, Professor Cobos is dedicated to upholding academic excellence and spiritual integrity among students.
