

Program Outcomes Map

2024-2025

Bachelor of Science in Biblical Studies

TRUTH. TRAINING. TRANSFORMATION.

Outcomes Assessment Map — Bachelor of Science in Biblical Studies

2024–2025 | College of Biblical Studies

Program Purpose

The 120-credit hour Bachelor of Science in Biblical Studies is designed to equip men and women with the skills necessary for ministry in various contexts. Built on the foundation of inductive Bible interpretation, the program includes training in Christian Leadership and Biblical Counseling.

Program Learning Outcomes

Outcomes		Assessment Method	2024–2025 Results	Status
Outcome 1:	Defend biblically one's position on major biblical interpretive issues.	Position paper in THEO 1313 (goal: 2.5/4) and exposition paper in BIBL 4331 (goal: 3.0/4).	THEO 1313 Avg: 3.67 BIBL 4331 Avg: 3.14 English Online (7 papers, THEO) and (7 papers, BIBL)	✅ Goal Met — Above Benchmark
Outcome 2:	Learn and apply principles of Christian ministry.	Christian Service Learning Program (CSLP). Supervisor ratings across objectives.	CSLP Good/Outstanding Ratings: Character 100% Learning 100% Skills 100% Ministry 100%	✅ Goal Exceeded
Outcome 3:	Categorize the major doctrines of the Bible.	Bible Knowledge Exam and departmental final exams in THEO 1311 and THEO 3330.	Bible Knowledge: 78.2 (vs National 71.6) THEO 1311 Avg: 86.67 THEO 3330 Avg: 82.53	✅ Goal Met

Performance Snapshot

- Students exceeded outcome benchmarks in both interpretive and doctrinal assessments.
- CSLP results consistently demonstrated exceptional ministry application outcomes (100% ratings across objectives).
- Bible Knowledge Exam results were above the national average.

Program Improvements & Next Steps

- Maintain instructional quality in biblical interpretation and doctrinal studies.
- Continue refining CSLP implementation to sustain high performance and student engagement.
- Monitor and ensure alignment across English and Spanish exam versions.
- Use longitudinal tracking to identify trends and support continuous improvement.

Closing the Loop

All program learning outcomes for 2024–2025 were met or exceeded. Biblical interpretation, ministry application, and doctrinal knowledge continue to demonstrate program strength. The program remains aligned with institutional goals, with ongoing improvements ensuring consistency across modalities.